Sandr  Swanson Endorsed by Assemblymember Rob Bonta in District 9 Senate Race

Alameda, CA – Former East Bay Assemblymember Sandr  Swanson announced today the endorsement of Assemblymember Rob Bonta, Chair of the Assembly Health Committee.

Assemblymember Bonta succeeded Swanson in the Assembly in 2012 and represents approximately half of the 9th Senate District’s voters. Bonta’s endorsement continues the growing support and momentum behind Swanson’s campaign for State Senate – coming quickly after incumbent 9th District Senator Loni Hancock endorsed Swanson’s bid to succeed her.

“Sandr  has been one of the most effective, principled, and visionary leaders in the East Bay. I have always admired Sandr ’s deep personal commitment to fighting for our East Bay values. “He is someone that has stood up and done the right thing for our community, time and time again, showing a track record of being a true leader,” said Assemblymember Rob Bonta. “I’m honored to endorse Sandr  Swanson for State Senate

“I’m honored to have the support of Assemblymember Rob Bonta,” Swanson said. “Assemblymember Bonta has a proven record of fighting on behalf of the people in the East Bay – improving schools, making our streets safer, and supporting the creation of good jobs. I’m proud to earn his endorsement in my campaign for State Senate.”
