"Sandré Swanson is the proven leader that California's working families need in the State Senate," said Senate President pro Tempore Kevin de León. "Sandré has spent a lifetime fighting for justice, equality, and creating new opportunities for working people to succeed. He was a leader in passing landmark legislation against human trafficking, fought for budgets that weren't balanced on the back of the poor and elderly, and championed policies to help close the growing gulf between the rich and the poor. I'm proud to offer Sandré Swanson my full endorsement and support."

"I am humbled, honored, and energized by Senate President pro Tempore de León's endorsement of my campaign," said Sandré Swanson. "I had the pleasure of serving with Senate President pro Tempore Kevin de León in the Assembly, where we worked together on so many important issues ranging from education and health care to job creation and the budget. We share a vision and commitment to building a more prosperous and just California for everyone. It is an honor to have his support and I look forward to working with him once again in the State Senate."
